

2026 Maryfield Fair Horse Clinic
Friday, July 24, 2026

We are excited to announce that our 2026 Main Ring horse show judge and “Ride the Pattern” clinician will be Chris Brown of Billings, Montana.

Chris Brown brings more than 25 years of expertise to the horse show arena as a respected trainer, educator, and judge. Based in Billings, Montana, Chris is the owner and operator of CMB Performance Horses, where she has trained horses and coached youth and amateur riders to top finishes at prestigious events including the AQHA World Show, All-American Quarter Horse Congress, and Canadian Nationals.

In addition to her industry credentials, Chris is a tenured professor of Equestrian Studies at Rocky Mountain College, where she has spent over two decades preparing students for successful careers in the equine world. She has coached multiple Intercollegiate Horse Show Association (IHSA) riders to national championships and currently serves as Chair of the IHSA National Western Committee and Regional President for Zone 8, Region 3.

Chris is also an internationally recognized judge and clinician, holding AQHA and NSBA judging cards and offering clinics across the U.S., Canada, and Australia. Her deep commitment to horsemanship, education, and competitive excellence make her a valued presence at every event she attends.

The Ride the Pattern Clinic will be held in the Maryfield Rink and on the Fairgrounds.

Adults: $100

Youth: $60

Contact Tracy Olsen via Facebook Messenger or on 306-532-3053 for more information and to register.

*The deadline to register for the Ride the Pattern Clinic is July 18, 2026.